

POSITION TITLE

English Language Art Teacher

POSITION LOCATION

Tashkent, Uzbekistan

REPORTS TO

Head of Department

CONTRACT TERM

2-year

APPLICATION DEADLINELANGUAGES REQUIRED

English

BACKGROUND

The Canadian School of Tashkent is the first Canadian K-12 school established in Tashkent, Uzbekistan. We are inspired by Canada's global competitiveness and world-class education standards. We leverage both the Canadian education system and the infinite possibilities presented by digital technologies to prepare our students for the future challenges and opportunities. At the Canadian School of Tashkent, we offer education to students of all nationalities, ranging from Preschool, students aged 3 years, to High School Grade 12. We offer a blend of Canadian and international curriculum as well as McGraw Hill contents while integrating digital technologies and contents in our learning and teaching systems. Our distinctive emphasis on digital education and project-based learning prepares our students for a world that is already transformed by digital technology and innovation. Our qualified staff and teachers, international curriculum and digital contents, world-class campus facilities as well as partnership with leading Canadian institutions makes us the best choice for a top employer in Tashkent.

Why Work with the Canadian School of Tashkent?

The Canadian School of Tashkent is committed to attracting the best and brightest of talents to work as teachers and professional staff who will inspire the next generation of change-makers and dreamers. If you are passionate about education and service in an institution that values academic and professional excellence, we invite you to consider applying for career opportunities at our school. We implement a rigorous and competitive selection process for our teachers and professional staff as we build a community of caring, professional, and committed individuals. Our work environment is cutting-edge, inspiring, and fast-paced. We encourage curiosity, innovation, and creativity in a rewarding intercultural environment. We offer our team exciting opportunities to apply their skills and gain experience while creating lasting change in education. Our campus is centrally located in Mirabad District in Tashkent. We offer competitive benefits, annual leave, safe and healthy working conditions, and fair compensation to both our national and international colleagues.

JOB BRIEF

We are seeking a dynamic and passionate English Language Arts Teacher to join our dedicated faculty. The ideal candidate will possess a deep understanding of English language arts curriculum development and pedagogy, along with a strong aptitude for integrating technology into their teaching practices. Familiarity with McGraw Hill resources and the Canadian curriculum is highly preferred.

Job Overview

As an English Language Art Teacher, you will be responsible for teaching English language classes to middle school students, ensuring that the curriculum is effectively delivered and student progress is monitored. You will utilize innovative teaching methods and resources to engage students, encourage critical thinking, and develop their problem-solving skills. Collaboration with colleagues and active participation in professional development activities will be essential to enhance instructional practices and contribute to the overall academic program.

Main duties and Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement engaging English language arts lesson plans tailored to meet the diverse needs of students.
- Foster a supportive and inclusive classroom environment that encourages active participation and critical thinking.
- Utilize a variety of instructional strategies, including technology-enhanced learning tools, to enhance student learning outcomes.
- Assess student progress regularly and provide timely feedback to support academic growth.
- Collaborate with colleagues to align curriculum objectives and share best practices for effective teaching and learning.
- Stay informed about current trends and developments in English language arts education, integrating new ideas and methodologies into instructional practices.
- Maintain accurate records of student attendance, grades, and other pertinent information.
- Communicate regularly with parents/guardians to provide updates on student progress, discuss academic concerns, and collaborate on strategies to support student learning.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Education or a related field (Master's degree preferred).
- Valid teaching certification/license.
- Proven experience teaching English language arts at the 6-12 level.
- Strong proficiency with educational technology tools and platforms.
- Familiarity with McGraw Hill resources and the Canadian curriculum is an asset.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

- Ability to differentiate instruction to meet the diverse learning needs of students.
- Commitment to continuous professional growth and development.

Experience:

- Minimum of 5 years of teaching experience.
- Experience working with international or diverse student populations is a plus.
- Experience integrating technology into the classroom .
- Canadian curriculum and McGrawHill experience (preferred)

If you are a compassionate and tech-savvy educator who is dedicated to empowering young learners in a digital school environment, we encourage you to apply to join our dynamic educational community.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package, along with a supportive work environment that values professional growth and innovation. If you are a motivated and experienced individual with a passion for education, we invite you to apply for the position of Home room teacher.

To apply, please submit your resume, cover letter, and any relevant certifications or references to jobs@canadianschool.uz.